

MAR VISTA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Minutes of the September 23, 2004 Meeting:

The meeting was held at the home of Amanda Seward and Hans Adamson. The attendees were treated to a tour around a block of the Gregory Ain's historical tract. Hans gave us an informative tour of their house and yard. So interesting! As you may know, the Ain's tract has been designated as an historical area.

1. Attendees: Hans Adamson, host, Glen Howell, Nadine Gallegos, Diannah Morgan, Hal and Cicely Gordon, Marie Wallace and Linda Guagliano. Ken Marsh visited the meeting briefly.
2. History of Gregory Ain's Mar Vista Tract and the house at 3530 Moore. Hans Adamson.
3. Minutes of August meeting and agenda for this meeting handed out. (Amanda Seward)
4. Nadine Gallegos volunteers to take the minutes.
5. Ken Marsh, MVCC zone 3 director, asks MV Historical Society to again have a table at the quarterly stakeholders meeting on October 12. He asks that he be given a written description of MVHS. This item is added to the agenda.
6. Minutes of August meeting read and approved.
7. Website-
  1. Nadine hands out three documents, the Gabrielino/Tongva Springs event, the Oral History book recap and the current website mock-up printout from Diannah Morgan's website. (temporary)
  2. Nadine volunteers to be the MVHS website editor. Moved and approved.
  3. Glen reports that Nancy Howell has gotten newsletters from various homeowners groups, such as the Mar Vista View. Glen has written one Mar Vista historical item for the MV View.
  4. Glen will provide stories of Mar Vista which he has researched for the Stories section of the website. He relates events, which occurred in Solstice Canyon. He will also include the list of stories and the timeline of Mar Vista, back 10,000 years.
  5. Diannah Morgan has time to upload and will, once she's given the particulars from the site donor.
8. Relationship with MVCC agenda item tabled.
