ATTENDANCE: Glen and Nancy Howell, Hal and Cicely Golden,, Nadine Gallegos, Joan Beierle, Dorothy Nichols, Marie Wallace, Linda Guagliano

HOST: Hal and Cicely Golden

PRESIDING: Glen Howell

- Oral Interviews:Stephens Ranch-Glen Howell will pursue an interview with Mildred Stephens, who is 99 years old.
- Courtyard Apartments, Westdale Trousdale Cultural-Historical Monument application. Dorothy Nichols described the November 15 Planning and Land Use Management (PLUM) committee meeting at City Hall. More than sixty Mar Vista residents packed the meeting room. Dorothy and several historical experts gave testimony on how the property satisfies three of the four criteria of city code 22.130. Nichols showed the committee the 1,100 petitions of support signed by Mar Vistans and other local residents. Bill Rosendahl stated his full support for the application. Chair Reyes continued the issue until the next meeting, November 22. Dorothy requests MVHS members attend that meeting as well, to show support.
- Glen Howell presented a “History of Clover Field” including a ”Santa Monica Airport Chronology” (handout) and series of aerial photos beginning in the 1920s. Our clever researcher found the photos online in the Appendices to the Santa Monica College Master Plan (smc.edu). Glen using the photos through time show the changing relationships of the land used, leased and owned.

Next Meeting: Thursday, December 15, 2005, 7:00-9:00 p.m. Host: Glen and Nancy Howell.
